Welcome to ECRAF Congress 2017 in Paris !

Dear participants of the ECRAF Congress.

After a year we meet again, this time in the beautiful city of all lovers - Paris. Although the reason for our meeting is not so romantic, I am nevertheless convinced that our session will be full of exciting and interesting discussions on the main topic of this year's Congress –

Current challenges in the field of road safety in the European armed forces.

I hope that this generally chosen topic will enable all participants to share their current road safety issues and actively engage in the debate. Someone who faced a similar problem in the past can sit in the auditorium and give you advice. Or someone disinterested can have an original idea how to solve your problem.

Anyway, I would like to encourage you all to present your current road safety issues in your armed forces and to be actively involved in the discussions. This will accomplish the core mission of ECRAF - the exchange and sharing of experience, knowledge and initiatives amongst the armed forces in the field of road safety.

In addition to this purely expert part of the congress, during general assembly we will have to solve some organizational issues that are important for the future of ECRAF, such as the new secretary and the ECRAF basic documents in order to make them as realistic as possible.

Lastly, let me express my sincere thanks to the members of the Executive Committee and, above all, to our French hosts for their efforts in preparing the premises and the program of this Congress.

I wish you all the fruitful 2017 Congress and welcome to Paris!
