

EUROPEAN COMMISSION FOR ROAD SAFETY IN THE ARMED FORCES

President Oddvar Haagensen, Langhusveien 12. N-7130 Brekstad. Norway.

Oslo 19th March 2012

Dear delegates

REGARDING ECRAF ELECTION 2012 / REQUEST FOR CANDIDATES AS VICE-PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Introduction

In accordance with the approved Statutes of ECRAF, the General Assembly is responsible for planning and implementing of all the elections – normally valid for two years up to a maximum of four years. The current Election committee consist of representatives from the next two ECRAF congress host nations:

- Francisco Casado – Spain
- Ernes Heleg – Bosnia-Herzegovina.

The Election Committee

The Election Committee will present its proposal at the coming General Assembly in Spain. The proposal will together with the other documents be sent the delegates in due time before the General Assembly.

Election Status for the Executive Committee

President Oddvar Haagensen	2011-2013	Not for election
Vice-President Robert Windischmann	2010-2012	For Election
Member Johan Pihlstrøm	2011-2013	Not for election
Member Jan Sevcik	2011-2013	Not for election
Member Heleg Ernes	2010-2012	For election

Request for candidates

I will hereby invite the member nations to propose candidates to the two positions within 15th May 2012.

Proposed candidates with names and a short CV can be sent by mail to our Administrative Secretary Kevin de Medts who also is the secretary of the Election Committee. His address is as following: E-mail: Kevin.demedts@mil.be

Yours Sincerely

Oddvar Haagensen
Colonel NOR F
President ECRAF